FINANCE DEPARTMENT

Notification

Sachivalaya, Gandhinagar, 16th October, 2000.

CONSTITUTION OF INDIA,

No. (GN-34) TJN-102000-172-Z.—In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (2) of article 283 of the Constitution of India. The Governor of Gujarat here by makes the following rules further to amend the Bombay Treasury Rules, 1960, namely :

1. These rules may be called the Bombay Treasury (Gujarat Third Amendment) Rules, 2000.
2. IN the Bombay Treasury Rules, 1960 (herein after referred to as "The said rule"), in rule, 545 for sub-rule (i), the following shall be substituted, namely :-

"(1) Provident Fund :- Advance from a Provident Fund, if permissible under the Rules of the Fund and withdrawal under Deposit linked Insurance Scheme may be drawn on form No. BTR-47. The bill being supported by a copy of the sanction duly attested by the Head of the Office. In the case of Class IV Govt. servants the advance, if admissible may draw on Form No. 47. B, the bill being supported by a copy of the sanction duly attested by the Head of office. The bill may be also if so desired be endorsed in favour of the non-gazetted subscriber after having his signature attested on the bill, provided the amount of the advance exceeds Rs.1000, the subscriber may re-endorse the bill in such a case of his banker or messenger for collection. The condition prescribed in provision (2) of rule 175 being applicable mutatis mutandis.

3. In the said rules for rule 546, the following shall be substituted namely :-

When a subscriber to the Provident Fund is about to retire and under the rules of the fund the money lying at his credit in the fund becomes payable to him, the head of the office in the case of non-gazetted Government servants and the Government servants himself in other cases shall communicate to the Accountant General or the Director of Pension and Provident Fund as the case may be by whom the fund account is maintained giving the date of retirement and requesting that steps be taken to close the account and pay to the subscriber the amount due. This communication shall be sent twelve months before the date of retirement.

The Accountant General or the Director of Pension and Provident Fund as the case may be, being satisfied of the correctness of the claim, and on ascertaining the date upto which the subscription has been paid, will arrange for the payment of the amount at the credit of the subscriber in the account of the Fund. The bill may be prepared in the same form BTR 47 and Form BTR 47-B as prescribed in sub rule 1 of rule 545. The bill being supported by a duly certified copy of the letter of authority from the Audit Officer or the Director of Pension and Provident Fund as the case may be.

All such payment of final withdrawal from GPF to the retired officer/employee or the person nominated by the deceased officer/employee should be made from the last office where the Government officer/employee was serving. The Accountant General and the Directorate of Pension and Provident Fund Ahmedabad should issue the authorisation letter in favour of the Drawing and Disbursing Officer of the office where the concerned officer/employee was last serving. The Drawing and Disbursing Officer concerned should prepare a regular bill duly signed by him and present the same to the bill duly signed by him and present the same to the treasury and after getting "A/c Payee" Cheque from the treasury in favour of the concerned officer/employee or the person nominated by them, he should make such payment.

The procedure prescribed in this rule shall apply mutatis mutandis to all other cases in which the amount lying at credit of a subscriber in his Provident Fund account becomes payable to him as finally quitting the service.

4. In the said rules, for Form B.T.R. 47, the following shall be substituted namely :-

Rules and Orders (other than these published in Parts I, I--A and I--L) made by the Government of Gujarat under the Central Acts.

LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT DEPARTMENT

Notification

Sachivalaya, Gandhinagar, 25th November, 2000.

No. KHR/242/EPF/2000/2850/M(3).—Whereas M/S. The Baroda Peoples Co-operative Bank Ltd. Baroda (hereinafter referred to as the said establishment) has applied for exemption under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 17 of the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 (19 of 1952) (hereinafter referred to as the said Act).

AND WHEREAS in the opinion of the Government of Gujarat the rules of the provident fund of the said establishment with respect to the rates of contribution are not less favourable to employees therein than those specified in section 6 of the said Act and the employees are also in enjoyment of other provident fund benefits which on the whole are not less favourable to the employees than the benefits provided under the said Act or under the Employees provident Fund Scheme, 1952 (hereinafter referred to as the said scheme) in relation the the employees in any other establishment of a similar character.

NOW, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 17 of the said Act and subject to the conditions Specified in the Schedule annexed hereto the Government of Gujarat here by exempts the said establishment from the operation of all the provisions of the said scheme.

THE SCHEDULE

1. The employer, in relation to the said establishment, shall provide for such facilities for inspection and pay such inspection charges as the Central Government or any other competent authority may, from time to time, direct under clause (a) of sub-section (3) of section 17 of the said Act within 15 days from the close of every month.

2. The rate of contribution payable under the provident fund rules of the establishment shall at no time be lower than these payable under the said Act in respect of the un-exempted establishments and the said Scheme framed there under.

3. In the matter of advances, the scheme of the exempted establishment shall not be less favourable than the employees' provident Fund Scheme 1952.

4. Any amendment to the said scheme which is more beneficial to the employees than the existing rules of the establishment shall be made applicable to them automatically. No amendment of the rules of the provident fund of the said establishment shall be made without the previous approval of the Regional Provident Fund Commissioner and where any amendment is likely to affect adversely the interest of the employees of the said establishment, the Regional Provident Fund Commissioner shall, before giving his approval, give reasonable opportunity to the employees to explain their points of view.

5. All employees (as defined in Section 2(f) of the said Act) who would have been eligible to become member of the Provident Fund had the establishment not been granted exemption shall be enrolled as members.

6. Where an employee who is already members of the Employees' Provident Fund (statutory) or a provident fund of any other exempted establishment is employed in his establishment, the employer shall immediately enroll him as a member of the fund and arrange to have the accumulation in the provident fund account of such employee with his previous employer transferred and credited to his account.

7. The employer shall establish a Board of Trustees for the management of the provident fund according to such directions as may be given by the central Provident Fund Commissioner or by the Central/State Government, as the case may be, from time to time.

8. The provident fund shall vest in the Board of Trustees who will be responsible for and accountable to the Employees Provident Fund Organisation inter-alia for proper accounts of the receipts into and payments from the Provident Fund and the balance in their custody.

9. The Board of Trustees shall meet at least once in every three months and shall function in accordance with the guidelines that may be issued from time to time by the Central Government/Central Provident Fund Commissioner or an officer authorised by him.

10. The accounts of the provident Fund maintained by the Board of Trustees shall be subject to audit by a qualified independent chartered Accountant annually. Where considered necessary, the Central Provident Fund Commissioner shall have the right to have the accounts re-audited by any other qualified auditor and the expenses so incurred shall be borne by the employer.

11. A copy of the audited annual provident fund accounts together with the audited balance sheet of the establishment for each accounting year shall be submitted to the Regional Provident Fund Commissioner within six months after the close of the financial year.

12. The employer shall transfer to the Board of Trustees the contributions payable to the provident Fund by himself and the employees by the 15th of each month following the month for which the contributions are payable. The employer shall be liable to pay damages to the Board of Trustees for any delay in payment of the contributions in the same manner as an un exempted establishment is liable under similar circumstances.

13. The Board of Trustees shall invest the money in the fund as per directions that may be given by the Government from time to time. The securities shall be obtained in the name of the Board of Trustees and shall be kept in the custody of a scheduled Bank under the Credit control of the Reserve Bank of India.

14. Failure to make investments as per directions of the Government shall make the Board of Trustees severally and jointly liable to surcharge as may be imposed by the Central Provident Fund Commissioner or his representative.

15. The Board of Trustees shall maintain a scriptwise register and ensure timely realisation of interest.

16. The Board of Trustees shall maintain detailed accounts to show the contributions credited, withdrawal and interest in respect of each employee.

17. The Board shall issue an annual statement of accounts to every employee within six months of the close of financial accounting year.

18. The Board may, instead of the annual statement of accounts, issue pass books to every employee. Those pass books shall remain in the custody of the employees and will be brought up-to-date by the Board on presentation by the employees.

19. The accounts of each employee shall be credited with interest calculated on the opening balance as on the 1st day of the accounting year at such rate as may be decided by the Board of Trustees but shall not be lower than the rate declared by the Central Government under para 60 of the said Scheme.

20. If the Board of Trustees are unable to pay interest at the rate declared by the Central Government for the reason that the return on investment is less or for any other reason than the deficiency shall be made good by the employer.

21. The employer shall also make good any other loss that may be caused to the Provident Fund due to theft burglary, defalcation, mis-appropriation or any other reason.

22. The employer as well as the Board of Trustees shall submit such returns to the Regional Provident Fund Commissioner as the Central Government/Central Provident Fund Commissioner may prescribe from time to time.

23. If the Provident Fund rules of the establishment provide for forfeiture of the employees' contributions in cases where an employee ceases to be a member of the fund on the lines of para 69 of the said Scheme, the Board of Trustees shall maintain a separate accounts of the amounts so forfeited and may utilise the same for such purposes as may be determined with the prior approval of the Central Provident Fund Commissioner.

24. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Provident Fund Rules of the establishment, if on the occasion of any individual from the memberships of the fund consequent on retiring from service or on taking up the employment in some other establishment, it is found that the rate of contribution, rate of forfeiture etc. under the P.F. Rules of the establishment are less favourable as compared to these under the statutory Scheme, the difference shall be borne by the employer.

25. The employer shall bear all the expenses of the administration of the Provident Fund including the maintenance of accounts, submission of returns, transfer of accumulations.

26. The employer shall display on the notice board of the establishment, a copy of the rules of the fund as approved by the appropriate authority and as and when amended there to along with a translation of the salient points thereof in the language of the majority of the employees.

27. The "Appropriate Government" may lay down any further conditions for continued exemption of the establishment.

28. The employees shall enhance the rate of provident fund contributions appropriately if the rate of provident fund contribution is enhanced under the said Act so that the benefits under the Provident Fund Scheme of the establishment shall not become less favourable than the benefits provided under the said Act.

29. The employer shall submit the annual statement of the proceedings of the meeting of the Board of Trustees (as indicated in para 7) to the state Government regularly.

30. The exemption is liable to be cancelled for violation of any of the above conditions.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Gujarat.
